Market Summary:

- Results in our local market are in line with national figures.
- The numbers indicate we are continuing to work toward a sustainable and saleable market.
- Overall, pricing rules the day. Median sales price for the region is $19,000 less than the median for the first quarter of 2010 reflecting continual declines, making homes more affordable; The most affordable markets remain in the outlying localities of Fluvanna, Louisa, and Orange.
- Home sales increased by 23 homes over this same time last year, and is only 11% below the five-year average.
- Active listing inventory is at 3,239 which is 114 lower than active listings this same time last year, and 156 below the five-year average. Pending sales is at 217.
- The Days on Market (DOM) for homes has been essentially flat for the first quarter each year.

The Bottom Line:

Price sensitivity is still a key factor in this market and if you plan to sell a home in 2011, be sure to have a REALTOR® prepare a Comparative Market Analysis (CMA) so that you can price it to sell. And if you are looking to buy, a REALTOR® can help you understand the current market and evaluate your options.
